Luxury Barging in France

Have you ever dreamed of escaping to the perfect world?

Then consider the ultimate floating adventure aboard a luxury barge. All hotel barges are built, fitted out and run to the highest standards. Interiors are tastefully decorated with beautiful wood panels and soft fabrics. Most barges have a fleet of bicycles for exploring the countryside and small villages or for cycling at leisure along the towpath.

Choose from a fleet of Hotel-barges cruising the French rivers and canals as you enjoy quality and personalized service.

Theme cruises - wine, cuisine & ballooning.

BARGE CRUISING IN FRANCE

Experience the ultimate in pampering as you float through France aboard luxurious purpose-built floating resorts

We have several barges from which to select and various rivers that they operate on. A French barge vacation offers a special glimpse of France, at 4 mph. Each day on most barges you will take a tour in an air conditioned private French tour bus. Each day aboard, sample the finest French wines and the best in gourmet French foods. It is all included in the price on most barges. Your European Boating Holiday will be the best vacation you ever had.

Here are some sample cruising areas with sample prices:

	Anaculthe - A cruise on the M.S. Anacoluthe combines the comforts of a mini ocean liner with the charm of a river steamer. The elegant interior provides ample space to relax, seasoned wood tones, old world charm. Large windows give all round views of the passing scenery. The Piano Bar, the exercise room and outdoor hot tub add to the ambiance of unprecedented comfort.	From $1,890 USD for 7 days for the cruise per person double
	Caroline - Whether you are on a visit to a French Vineyard for a personal French wine tasting, or walking through the charming streets of a Medieval Village, or walking the ramparts of the world famous castle of Carcassonne, you will build fond memories of France that will last a life time.. The Caroline has a capacity of 6 guests and can be chartered for your exclusive enjoyment.	From €2,950 for 7 Days for the cruise per person double
	Chateau la Chassagne - This private luxury hotel, a former 19th century hunting lodge - set in the idyllic splendour of a 100-acre woodland park - is located in the glorious Burgundy countryside close to Dijon / France. A dream come true for gourmets! They own two hotelboats offering excellent cuisine, free drinks at the bar, plus guided excursions. A truly first-class vacation for those who know.	From $1,495 USD for 4 Days for the cruise. 7 Day cruise is from $2,795
	Lorraine - The Lorraine, an elegant new boat accommodating 22 passengers in great comfort. It is a very modern vessel equipped with a flower-strewn sundeck with chairs and parasols, a cozy saloon leading to the bar and a separated dining-room. On the lower deck are 11 comfortable cabins with large opening windows. The Lorraine navigates in Alsace, a very popular cruising area.	From $1,890 USD for 7 days for the cruise per person double
	Libellule - A delightful cruise along the bucolic river Saône with historical riverside towns, Beaujolais wine country, Lyon, the second city and gourmet capital of France, Romanesque churches and the abbey of Cluny. This itinerary is also ideal for wine lovers as it cruises through several major producing areas.	From $1,890 USD for 7 days for the cruise per person double

Welcome to the wonderful world of waterways cruising. We may be a little biased but we think you will agree that this is a special way to discover the heart of France. You will see the French countryside in its full glory. You will discover her secrets at 4 mph, allowing plenty of time to see the detail you would miss with any other form of travel. This is the graceful way of life that seems long forgotten to us today. Contact us to book your vacation today
